The Tsunami Requiem is a moving and compelling work telling the story of the devastating tsunami which hit the fishing villages of Tamil Nadu in South India in 2004. Accessible for all abilities, we invite you to join us for a day of singing, fun and camaraderie - led with energy, humour and vocal expertise by music director Graham Wili and composer Chris Williams. To book your place book online at englishphilharmonia.co.uk, complete the booking form overleaf or contact Elizabeth Wood on 01803 872296.
